

507BC

Deposition of last King of Rome (Tarquinius Superbus) and foundation of Republic

(Some authorities give 509BC)

507 BC

Spartans under CLEOMENES
try to restore the aristocracy in Athens.
Athenians rise and put CLISTHENES back in power.

507BC

CLEISTHENES extends democracy at Athens

507BC

HORATIUS PULVILLUS was consul for the second time.
He dedicated the Capitoline Temple.

Tarquin the Elder started it in the Sabine War. Servius Tullius carried the construction further thanks to the support of our allies

Furthered by Tarquin the Proud with spoils taken from the enemy at the capture of SUESSA POMETIA, and furnished by the free republic.